

|| SOCIAL STUDIES INSTRUCTOR ||

St. Teresa's Academy

St. Teresa's is a Catholic, college preparatory high school committed to excellence in the education of young women, the Academy offers a rigorous academic curriculum combined with the latest technology, competitive athletic teams, award-winning fine arts programs, and a wide variety of extracurricular opportunities. St. Teresa's Academy educates young women to think critically, encourages them through Catholic values to love the dear neighbor without distinction, and empowers them to change the world.

The Academy is seeking a full-time Social Studies instructor to work with the Principal for Academic Affairs and Social Studies Department colleagues. This educator will support and integrate the values of St. Teresa's Academy and the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet into the daily work and curriculum, igniting a passion for social studies, rigor, and excellence.

We offer a terrific benefits package including:

- Discounted tuition for employees' daughters attending STA
- Medical, dental, and vision plans
- FSA/HSA plans
- Life & voluntary life
- Short-term & long-term disability
- Critical illness
- 403(b) retirement savings plan with school match
- Generous paid time-off benefits including long holidays and seasonal breaks typically enjoyed by schools!

| Responsibilities |

- The duties of a Social Studies teacher include creating lesson plans, preparing classroom activities, organizing teaching materials, evaluating student performance, maintaining classroom records, meeting with parents, teachers, and other professionals, and participating in campus events
- Teach social studies required courses and electives
- Serve as a member of the Social Studies Department, attend departmental meetings, develop and update course curricula, purchase supplies within a budget, collaboratively plan experiential learning opportunities that include domestic or international travel and review textbooks
- Support the school's mission and the mission of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet

| Qualifications |

- A bachelor's degree in social studies or other discipline with significant study of social sciences
- AP U.S. History and Psychology teaching experience preferred but not required
- Secondary or Post-Secondary teaching experience preferred
- An understanding of best practices in education and service learning

- A demonstrated passion for inspiring young women through excellent instruction
- Ability to integrate technology into the curriculum
- Collaborative spirit in developing cross-curricular experiences for students
- Fosters global competencies through experiential and authentic learning opportunities
- Flexibility, optimism, creativity, high expectations, and an emphasis on student-centered learning
- Enthusiastic involvement in the school community outside the classroom
- Excellent communication skills, both written and oral
- Proven organizational skills
- Understanding of the Catholic faith, single-sex schools, and the mission of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet preferred

| St. Teresa's Academy is an Equal Opportunity Employer |