

|| SOCIAL STUDIES INSTRUCTOR ||

St. Teresa's Academy

St. Teresa's Academy (STA) is a Catholic, accredited, college-preparatory high school that provides young women with a premier education that includes a rigorous academic curriculum and technology program, award-winning arts and athletics programs, and service and mission opportunities. STA, founded by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet, educates young women to think critically, encourages them through Catholic values to serve others, and empowers them to make a profound impact on the world.

The Academy is seeking a full-time Social Studies instructor to work with the Principal for Academic Affairs and Social Studies Department colleagues. This educator will support and integrate the values of St. Teresa's Academy and the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet into the daily work and curriculum, igniting a passion for social studies, rigor, and excellence.

|| Responsibilities ||

- The duties of a Social Studies teacher include creating lesson plans, preparing classroom activities, organizing teaching materials, evaluating student performance, maintaining classroom records, meeting with parents, teachers and other professionals, and participating in campus events
- Teach social studies required courses and electives
- Serve as a member of the Social Studies Department, attend departmental meetings, develop and update course curricula, purchase supplies within a budget, collaboratively plan experiential learning opportunities that include domestic or international travel and review textbooks
- Support the school's mission and the mission of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet

|| Qualifications ||

- A bachelor's degree in Social Studies or other discipline with significant study of social sciences
- AP US History and Psychology teaching experience preferred but not required
- Secondary or Post-Secondary teaching experience preferred
- An understanding of best practices in education and service learning
- A demonstrated passion for inspiring young women through excellent instruction
- Ability to integrate technology into the curriculum
- Collaborative spirit in developing cross-curricular experiences for students
- Fosters global competencies through experiential and authentic learning opportunities
- Flexibility, optimism, creativity, high expectations, and an emphasis on student-centered learning
- Enthusiastic involvement in the school community outside the classroom
- Proven organizational skills
- Understanding of the Catholic faith, single-sex schools, and the mission of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet preferred

|| St. Teresa's Academy is an Equal Opportunity Employer ||